

Anticipation Guide: “The Immune System”

Directions: (1) Before Reading the pages, read the following statements carefully and indicate your reactions: += strongly agree, = agree somewhat, and - = disagree. Be prepared to support your opinions with specific information and experience. (2) After reading the article, reread these statements and indicate any new and changed opinions. (3) Compare your opinions with those of the author and mark each statement with which the author would agree. Finally, copy a quotation that helped you to identify the author’s perspective. Include the page number and the paragraph number.

Before Reading		After Reading	After Reading
			Author
	1. Immune cells are part of the Lymphatic system. Quotation:
	2. T-lymphocytes mature in the Thymus becoming T cells. Quotation:
	3. B cells that mature in the bone marrow are not considered B-lymphocytes Quotation:
	4. Antigens are part of your cells and are not foreign to your body. Quotation:
	5. Cytotoxic cells help destroy foreign objects Quotation:
	6. Antibodies clump up foreign bacteria so that they can be destroyed by T-helper cells Quotation:		